

Protection in case of power failure

During a power outage, the emergency release lock allows the to unlock the operator, making it easier to manually open your garage door.

TECHNICAL DRAWINGS*FEATURES

- A emergency release lock is an external unlocking mechanism for the automation, it is a simple and effective tool that guarantees manual access to your garage.
- Designed to allow you to manually operate your garage door during power outages or if your garage door opener is lost or stolen.
- Suitable for garage doors without other access doors.
- With 2 keys, 1.80 steel cable and cable lock.
- Two installation methods. Side or Top

PACKAGING

Package weight: 0,136 Kg

